HOSPITAL IS OVERCROWDED

West Lincoln. Admitted 86 Patients During March—Five Pneumonia Patients Turned Away In Two Days—Three Babies Born And An Emergency Operation Performed Within A Space Of Three Hours On Sunday.

The heaviest month yet experienced by the staff of West Lincoln Memorial hospital was the month of March. Not since the doors of the institution were opened the first week in January, 1946, has the hospital been called upon to handle such a large number of patients.

During the month 86 patients were admitted to the hospital for treatment and on Friday and Saturday of last week no less than five pneumonia patients had to be refused entrance as it was absolutely impossible to admit them and take care of them.

On Sunday within the space of three hours three babies were born and an emergency appendicitis operation performed.

The hospital staff the past two months have been tremendously overworked and they themselves had attacks of illness but Superintendent Douglas MacRobbie kept them doctored and they stayed on the job.

It is a positive certainty that a new wing must be built and equipped this summer if the hospital is to continue giving the citizens of the Fruit Belt the high class hospitalization that it has been possible to date to give.

General meeting of the hospital Board of Directors and the Medical Council will be held next month and no doubt plans for an addition to the hospital will be discussed at that time.

MERRITTON TAX RATE STRUCK AT 55 MILLS

This Is A Rise Of Five Mills Over 1946—Public School Gets Three And Three-Quarter Mills.

MERRITTON, March 27—At a special meeting of the council last night, the mill rate for this year was struck at 55 mills, a rise of 5 mills over 1946. It is noted that of this 5 mill rise, 3 3/4 mills was asked by the public school and library board. It is also pointed out that the increase is not as high in a percentage basis as in other municipalities who have upped their rate this year. Particulars of the budget will be released at a later date.

Last night's meeting of council was the 16th of the year, including waterworks, with not one-third of the year yet gone. The council broke up at 11:45 last night, after they had ended Monday's session at 12:45, and on top of a large number of committee meetings it is noted that council has spent a tremendous amount of time this year in the pursuance of business, which is exceptionally heavy.

One Ship Load Of Immigrants Is Already On Way To Canada—Niagara District Strawberry Growers Have Made Application For This Help.

Applications are being received from district farmers to receive single and married Dutch immigrants as farm help and one shipload of immigrants, who have been applied for by relatives, is already on the way to Canada.

At a meeting of district strawberry growers held at the agricultural office in St. Catharines last Friday night, plans for the selective immigration of farm helpers from Holland were outlined by E. F. Neff, county agricultural representative; W. C. Nickerson, representing growers, and R. F. Clarke, manager of the National Employment Service here.

Due to crowded conditions in Holland, the Dutch government has been seeking outlets for emigration. Holland's population of 10,000,000 is considered too large for the country by at least 2,000,000, especially taking into consideration the high annual birth rate. The Dutch government has drawn up lists of applicants, the Dutch Reformed Church here has found places where such immigrants could settle, and the Canadian immigration department has given the "go-ahead" signal for this project.

It was explained that each applicant is thoroughly screened before being accepted, and a four-page history of each applicant is prepared. The applicants include single and married men, trained in dairy, mixed, fruit and vegetable (Continued on page 3)

THOROLD TAX RATE JUMPS TO 47 MILLS

At the special meeting of the Thorold town council held last week, Mayor W. A. Nutt announced that the 1947 mill rate would be 47 mills, a jump of five mills from the 1946 rate.

The increase in the general rate is only 20 mills but the high school rate is up 3.50 mills this year and the public school rate is up 1.20 mills, a total of 4.70 for the schools. The general 1947 tax rate will be 39 mills with five mills for the high school and 18 mills for the public schools.

TALLY-HO! TALLY-HO!

Remember back in the early 1900's when the chestnut team and the grey team pictured above were the cynosure of all eyes as they stepped smartly along the old Queenston and Grimsby Stone Road (No. 8 Highway) with their knees almost clicking their highly held heads. They were two of the finest teams of horses in all Ontario. Sometimes they were hitched to an open carriage, a barouche, a Victoria, a station wagon, or tandem to the big English Tally-Ho as pictured above. They belonged to the late John Hewitt. In the above photo, they are all ready to take part in the big Labor Day parade, which for years was a feature of the summer season in Grimsby. The Tally-Ho in this case was loaded to capacity with beautiful young ladies.

BEAMSVILLE TAX RATE JUMPS TO 39.05 MILLS

A tax rate of 39.05 mills was set by Beamsville council in a special session. The rate in 1946 was 36.50 mills. Included in this year's rate is a one mill levy for the West rate-in Hospital.

PLANTED FIRST PEACHES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

B.C., March 29—Harvey Hardy, founder of Peachry Hardy, 87, the famed Okanagan Valley fruitler, died yesterday.

A pioneer who came to the Okanagan with a pack train in 1885, he planted the first peach tree in the valley while working on a ranch. Scooped at, he lived to watch the growth of an industry which to-day brings millions of dollars to growers in British Columbia.

A new barber shop is being opened in Grimsby today. It will be located in the large front room of the Hotel Grimsby.

The new tonorial artists is none other than Gordon Book a former Beamsville boy who bartered in the eastern village for many years with Pete Tallman. For the past few months he has been operating a shop in Hamilton, but having disposed of that business he is opening this new shop in Grimsby.

Refuse To Feed Prisoners On Village Inn Meals As Recommended By Provincial Secretary's Department—Present Menus Are Plain But Good.

At the recent sessions of the Lincoln County Council, held in St. Catharines under Warden W. L. Paterson of Niagara-on-the-Lake, strong objection was voiced by councillors to a new suggested menu for the Lincoln County jail.

The question originally came up for discussion at the meeting of the General Administration Sub-Committee of the Council, under the chairmanship of Reeve Leonard Hoare, of Merritt, when recently-retired Sheriff Fred Graves presented a new menu of meals suggested for the inmates of the county jail. The sub-committee filed the communication with a recommendation that no action be taken by council, and council heartily endorsed the stand taken by the committee. The committee is composed of Chairman Hoare, Reeve Cecil Secord of Grantham Township, Reeve Robert M. Johnston, ex-warden of Lincoln, and Reeve John L. Hewitt of Grimsby.

When the subject of the suggested menu for breakfasts, dinners and suppers at the jail was brought to the attention of the council, as a whole meeting in general session, angry exclamations were heard that attempts were being made to make the jail into a model rest home. Reeve Cecil Secord acidly remarked that the only thing left off the menu was an instruction to "cut the crust off the prisoners' loaves." One councillor remarked that if the menu was authorized for use, "the jail would be the best boarding house in the district."

STORES WILL CLOSE

By mutual agreement between themselves the merchants of Grimsby will close their places of business on Easter Monday.

This is the first time that Grimsby stores have been closed on Easter Monday, although for years the banks and all government institutions have been closing on that day.

On another page in this issue will be found an advertisement containing a list of the stores that will be closed.

Peach Kings - 10 Sarnia - - - - 6

(By GORDON MCGREGOR)

AT PETROLIA

I heartily condemn the powers that be, for allowing a semi-final Intermediate B play-off game to be played in a rink, boasting none of the necessities required for a decent hockey game, and an ice surface not worthy of mention in any way, shape or form. If the fault lies with the O.H.A., then we pull punches in saying that we think it is a disgrace. If the fault belongs to the Sarnia team, then we can only say, that you deserved the shellacking you received in Grimsby.

The Grimsby Peach Kings were defeated three goals to two by the Sarnia Sailors in the first of a two game, goals to count series, at the Petrolia "rink" under conditions which this department did not think possible or probable. We are making no excuses for the Grimsby loss, because both teams were up against the same thing. Perhaps Sarnia are used to such an ice surface, and have adopted their style of play to cope with such conditions, but we consider the whole issue unfair to both teams. And writing this before the second game, we predict an easy win for the Kings on their own ice, and also that they would have had a victory in Petrolia had the ice been at least halfway playable.

Round three goes to Grimsby by a decisive margin. Ah, those words are music to our ears, particularly after we climbed out on the proverbial limb, and forecasted a five goal win for the Kings in the second game here in dear old Grimsby.

It was a thrilling game that fifteen hundred fans witnessed, complete with plenty to cheer about in the first and third periods, and considerable to worry about in that middle frame, when the Kings fell apart at the seams, and looked anything but impressive.

Down one goal on the round at the opening whistle, the Peach Kings opened with a blistering offensive that left the Sailors just a bit bewildered. For three minutes not a shot was fired on either goal, as the teams sparred around but at 7:46 the fans raised the roof as Frank Hill skated up the left boards, worked his way through three potential checks, crossed the enemy blueline and let drive. From this angle only a very small portion of the net was open, and old Ranorback's shot was right on. Hill's ability to pick the corners has paid off many times this season, but never before has this ability paid such dividends.

The Kings took the lead in the round on a well executed forward pass play, when, with Sarnia sucked in the Grimsby zone, Craig shot a long forward to Hutchison who was in the clear. His shot was stopped by Rutter in the Sailors net, but Hutch just managed to (Continued from Page 7)

THIRD WORLD WAR IS DISTINCT POSSIBILITY

So Declares Dr. J. E. VanDeusen, Noted Historian, In An Excellent Address Before Lions Club.

That there is no need for fear of a war with Russia in the immediate future was the opinion expressed by Dr. J. E. VanDeusen, Professor of American History at Hobart College, Geneva, N.Y., in a timely address delivered to a largely attended meeting of members and guests of the Lions Club held in the Village Inn last Tuesday evening.

Russia, said the speaker, needs time to rehabilitate herself and to learn the secret of the atomic bomb before she will dare to risk any attack on a country already having that terrible weapon, and particularly so in view of the fact that the scene of its production is far beyond the range of present day Russian aircraft.

By the time Russia may feel (Continued on page 9)

RAISE TEACHERS' PAY

(St. Catharines Standard)

Following a lengthy discussion of the matter of adopting a salary schedule along the lines suggested by the Teachers' Federation, it was moved by Trustee Cooper and Walsh that the schedule of public school salaries, beginning September 1947, for Niagara-on-the-Lake teachers, be as follows: Principal Brunton, minimum $2,300, maximum $2,500; Mr. Bell, minimum, $1,700, maximum $2,000; Misses Hutchison, Masters and Potter, minimum $1,800, maximum $2,000; Miss Kilgour, minimum $1,600, maximum $2,000; the minimum salary being advanced at the rate of an annual increase of $100; and also that all teachers in the high school be given an increase of $200 each beginning September 1947. Hon. Charles Daley, Member For Lincoln, Tells Ontario Legislature That Union Leaders Are Not Using The Facilities Provided To Settle Labor Arguments And Thus Prevent Strikes.

The following speech, made by Hon. Charles Daley, Minister of Labour for Ontario, and M.L.A. for Lincoln, as taken from the official report of the Legislature of Ontario Debates, shows quite clearly that all is not right and correct within the ranks of Unionized Labor in Ontario. Mr. Daley's speech is as follows:-

LABOUR SITUATION AT ST. CATHARINES

HON. CHARLES DALEY (Minister of Labour): Mr. Speaker, before the Orders of the Day, I would like to bring some information to you and to the hon. members of this Legislature of a condition that, while not prevalent, has broken in a particular instance and has given me some considerable concern. It is in regard to a labour situation. On March 3rd I was informed that in the Yale and Towne plant in St. Catharines, a strike vote had been taken. I immediately sent this telegram to Mr. Neville Hamlin, international representative of Local 629, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, and I quote:

It was with some concern that I received the news that a strike vote had been taken in the Yale (Continued on Page 9)

FACTS & FANCIES

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

IT COSTS MONEY TO GROW

I do not know how much it costs to raise a kid, an average kid, whether it be male or female, but I do know from conversation with friends who are raising kids, that it costs plenty. Those kids grow and as they grow the cost increases. At the same time as they grow their value to the family, to the municipality that they live in, to their province, to their country and to their Empire, also grows.

Now is there any difference between a growing kid and a growing town?

They both cost money. You nor I would not give up either one of them. It costs dough to raise a kid until he or she is productive. It costs money until a town is productive. Once the production starts then your well spent money comes back to you tenfold, in either case, and I am willing to listen to argument that it doesn't. Show me.

GRIMSBY stands today on the threshold of a grand, solid development IF our Town Council see fit to install the absolute necessary improvements. Ex-Mayor Edric S. Johnson, four years ago gave warning that if growth of the Fairview district was to take place sewers, water services and gas connections had to be made. Hydro would take care of itself. Two years ago Mayor Henry Bull gave council the same warning.

Those two warnings, from men who know the situation better than you and I know them, hold good today just the same as they held good the day they were uttered.

Now it is up to council to go ahead and do something. Cut out the chewing the rag and get down to solid business. Call in a firm of engineers. Cut out this man Ure of Niagara Falls, whether it is your fault or his, you have been monkeying around for two years and we have got no place yet. Maybe Ure is the man that should handle the job. If he is, then give him the high sign and let him go. Let's get some place.

Now we will come to the industrial end of this Town. GRIMSBY needs industry, whether there are certain men that sit on Town Council think so or not. I know right now there are three industries paying top-notch wages who are considering GRIMSBY. Mayor Bull knows the same thing and he is pulling like the Devil to get them here. I have no hesitancy in saying that we will land them, irrespective of what some members of Town Council will have to say about the matter.

I am not backing up one-millionth inch when I make the statement that a certain member of Town Council "sat down" and made the statement that GRIMSBY did not want industry. I know why. I will finish it off by giving him a line that was quoted in this column two weeks ago:

"Breathes there a man
With soul so dead."

See you next week with more solid, concrete building GRIMSBY information.

CITIZENS, CONSIDER YOURSELF LUCKY

This yap, yap, yap, about higher taxation does not mean a thing to me, despite the fact that your tax rate is going higher next year.

I told you last week to get your pencil and paper out. Now here are some more facts.

It is an admitted fact that during the past few years Grimsby has had a revenue of around $12,000 a year from the Water Commission that helped to bring your tax rate down to the low level that it attained. During that interim, the Water Commission also increased the 10 per cent discount for prompt payment of water bills to 25 per cent. Not doing bad. That 25 per cent discount still prevails, despite the fact that the Water Commission will this year, so far as is known now, only turn over to the town $8,500, thus causing the Town Council to add two mills to the tax rate to take care of that other $3,500 that they expected to get, but will not get. That is O. K.

If you read the Daily Press as I do you will know that the citizens of Toronto just raised the deuce because it was mooted that Toronto Board of Control and City Council ideas of raising the tax rate higher than 38 mls, and City Council listened to the howl of the wives and here is one of the results.

I take this from the Editorial Page of the Financial Post. It appears under the heading "All The Traffic Will Bear". It sums the situation in Toronto up correctly. It also shows that Grimsby and the actions of past councils were far ahead of the supposed to be Big City Brains. Here is the quotation:-

One can just imagine what a howl would be raised if any privately owned municipal utility suddenly jacked up its rates without notice. Yet this is exactly what Toronto City Council did the other day with its water customers.

The customary 10% discount for prompt payment was dropped and a new 5% penalty for late payment was imposed. Combined, these two moves will add $348,000 to the annual water bill of Toronto consumers, it is estimated.

A sudden jump like this would have been bad enough had civic waterworks been losing money. But it wasn't. Last year a surplus of over $700,000 was reported. The move was purely and simply a petty grab.

Instead of economizing or passing along a further increase in the general tax rate, Toronto authorities are going to force water consumers to pay expenses of other departments. As the Toronto Board of Trade points out, "placing water or any other civic service on a revenue basis is unsound and discriminatory taxation against the users of such services."

Grimsby is not doing too badly.

WE ALL NEED CONVERTING

I am not very strong on the different kinds of religion which flourish in this town and in other places. My friends, Henry Hillier and Tom Warner know the Prayer Book by heart, and Byron Smith was a stout Methodist. But then they have nothing else to think about. I am a busy man. But all the same I am a religious man. I even entered a competition once for a place among the most religious men of the town, and if the angels would only take away a few more of my competitors, I might even reach the top.

But in the meantime there is one man I am afraid of, and some of you may even guess who he is. He is a minister of the Gospel, and has been here longer than any other reverend gentleman of the town, now that the chief of all my competitors is gone. This minister is Mr. George L. Shivas, of the Gospel Hall on Adelaide Street, and of many other places to which he goes to spread the Gospel. I must admit that I have not often heard him preaching, but I meet him on the street, and other people meet him who know a good man when they see one, and I know the kind of life he leads. When I have a talk with him he says some of the things that other people don't say, but which perhaps they ought to say, if they were not so keen on keeping their light under a bushel basket.

Now my chief business is that of printing a newspaper every Thursday morning, and to do this I read other papers of all kinds. And just lately I came across a piece in a really religious paper published in Toronto, that good city, and if this piece is not about my friend Mr. Shivas, I lose my guess.

It tells about a godly minister who wrote a poem called "How, When, Where," and in this poem my friend, if my guess is right, tells about his conversion, how it happened, the day of the month, and the year, and the very place, with street and number. And it explains the difference from what he was before this happened, to what he was afterwards, and is.

And the Toronto writer goes on to place our humble townsman along with Bunyan and other high saints of long ago. And I second the motion. For I know that most of us need all the converting we can get.

Common-sense folks do not know trouble. They live within their means, pay their debts, accept what comes and are thankful that things are not worse.

HOW IT GROWS

Canada, without Polish and other help was scarcely able to maintain one full Corps in the field of Europe. But Canada today is forced to maintain two or three good sized corps, of various grade, ranks and salaries, in the army of the civil service. Here is the record as disclosed in a bulletin from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce:

"Between 1939 and 1946, the grand total of temporary and permanent employees of the civil service of Canada has risen from 46,106 to a new all-time high of 120,557. It might have been expected that this legion would show a reduction for the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1946, as compared with the previous twelve months but actually there was a net increase of 4,649. Any decrease in on department seems to be over-balanced by an increase in another department.

"Canadians would do well to realize that tax reduction can only be brought about if governments economize. The continuing growth of the civil service at the rate mentioned above is not only a move away from economy but a warning of the ever-growing power and strength of the government with a consequent lessening of power in the hands of the individual citizen."

That army of 120,557 is in the federal service strictly. Add to the number the tens of thousands of provincial and municipal employees, the cost of upkeep for nine different legislative branches in addition to the federal, and some idea will be gained of the cost of over-government which has grown insidiously on 12,000,000 people.

The growth of departmental bureaucracy is the price to be paid for centralized government and the end is not yet. The cost will be even greater in the loss of power "in the hands of the individual citizen," as the bulletin quoted points out.

MISTAKEN MEDICATION

Continuing moves for compulsory sickness insurance have led a number of medical authorities to analyze the promises of the system to greatly improve health. They point out that medical care furnishes the users of medical service with only a fraction of things needed for health.

Even if legislators consider only physical factors, other things such as sanitation, hygiene, safety, good nutrition, good housing, adequate clothing, and sound working conditions they find far more important. This testimony is timely, for the sponsors of Government insurance have spread an impression that the one thing needful is mass medicine.

Disagreeing with the health betterment attributed to compulsory medical care, Dr. Lowell S. Goin, President of the California Physicians' Service, told a Senate Committee hearing:

A sort of current custom is to use the terms "medical care" and "health" as if they were interchangeable—as though one were a synonym of the other. As a matter of fact, medical care is only a small part of the health problem—not even the most important part.

Dr. Louis H. Bauer, President of the Medical Society of the State of New York, writes:

There was a cartoon several years ago showing a woman in rags and a sad state of malnutrition, surrounded by children in a similar condition, and the cartoon was entitled, "These people need medical care." That was used as propaganda to overturn our system of medical care in the United States. The people portrayed needed a great many other things worse. If they had been properly clothed and housed and fed, they probably would have needed little medical care. The problem is really economic it becomes medical because of the economic factors, and all the medical care in the world will not solve the problem.

Even those who do not recognize the spiritual and mental nature of true health should first get compulsory medical care into perspective before launching legislative experiments. Government might better turn its attention to some other needs "instead of attacking only a small fraction of the problem and promising miracles."

Letters to the Editor

WE SHOULD BE THANKFUL

Grimsby, Ontario, March 28th, 1947.

To the Editor,
Grimsby Independent,
GRIMSBY, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Livingston:-

I feel that congratulations are due you on your front page Editorial regarding the tax rate.

It is probably inevitable that when taxes are going up there should be a certain amount of "squawking", and trying to pin the blame for the increase on certain departments of the Towns Administration. Your Editorial has dealt with the matter fairly and explained to us citizens that the increase is not due to any one agency.

Rather than throw brick-bats at anyone, let us consider how fortunate we have been for a few years to have had such an extremely low tax rate, and now that we are getting back to a more normal rate, we must accept the situation with good grace, and be thankful that we did have a period of abnormally low taxes.

Yours very truly,
EASEL J. MARSH

Mr. Clarke, who handled the settling of a number of Polish veterans on district farms, said that he expected a large number of applications from district farmers for these Dutch immigrants, particularly from fruit farmers. He said that Holland had a background very similar to Canada's, with regard to government and democratic institutions, and thought these people would fit in well here.

A number of growers attending the meeting signed up for one or more immigrants. Application forms are available at the county agricultural office and the National Employment Service office in St. Catharines.

It was explained that the immigrant farmers are readily available and the Dutch government has chartered several boats to bring them to Canada. If sufficient applications are received from Canadian farmers in the next week or two, it is expected the immigrants would arrive in Canada in time to help with this summer's fruit crop.

UKRAINIANS HONOR
Committee from Winnipeg, Manitoba, was guest speaker. In his speech he included Shevchenko's interesting history. He explained that Shevchenko's life was a sad one, his liberty was short lived. Accused of a patriotic revolutionary movement the Russian tsar sent him into bondage where he spent ten miserable years. On being pardoned in 1867 he returned to Petersburg and resumed his former studies at the Academy. But, because of failing health, his freedom was not lasting. Once more he visited his beloved country, Ukraine and, upon returning to Petersburg, died on February 28, 1861.

There was hardly a prominent writer to whom fate was so unkind. Nevertheless, despite these many obstacles, Shevchenko wielded a mighty pen and raised high the standard of Ukrainian writings. Now, just as England immortalized Shakespeare, as Poland extols Mickiewicz, so also dear to the hearts of all Ukrainians is Taras Shevchenko.

The programme also included a vocal solo by Olga Apostol, and three of Shevchenko's poems recited by Irene Stepow, Olga Omelchenko and Julia Fay.

Closing remarks were made by Mr. J. Omelchenko, president of the Ukrainian Canadian Comm. local branch at Grimsby.

At the conclusion the choir sang the two National Anthems—She Lives On, Our Ukraine, and God Save the King.

County officials stated yesterday, in discussing the question of the proposed menu, that prisoners are given various kinds of cereals, bread, milk and tea for breakfast. Dinner is composed of four ounces of beef, except at Christmas, bread, potatoes or soup made of various vegetables. For supper, rice with milk or jam, bread, porridge and tea is served, and the prisoners are always issued some sugar.

They also pointed out that while the meals could probably be better, they are according to a scale set out in the Official Rules and Regulations governing jails.

One other aspect of the matter around the ire of the council. The meals must, according to provincial regulations, be prepared by the prisoners themselves.

Council expressed the opinion that if the suggested menu was put into force, it would be necessary to hire a chef for the prisoners, since it would more than probably be impossible to find a prisoner capable of preparing such meals. The council also took a rather dim view of the whole matter, when it was reported that one prisoner, who has evidently seen the inside of numerous jails in the province, was alleged to have said that the Lincoln jail meals were better than could be had in most jails in Ontario.

The whole thing "as dropped like a hot potato by council when it was pointed out that prisoners were confined to the jail for punishment, and that it would be bad policy to make things too comfortable for them.

Criticism of the variety of meals served at the jail, voiced by the Grand Jury last September, drew the ire of the council, and the action of the members of the jury were in turn strongly condemned by Warden R. M. Johnston. At that time, strong remonstrance of the council which is last recommendation aroused the Grand Jury criticized the diet, specially in regard to vegetables and fruits, and the council was quick to point out, as it has in this case, that the meals served were set up by regulations. The Grand Jury was accordingly condemned by Warden Johnston for attempting to get the prisoners "peaches and cream."

County officials state that as far as they are concerned, the whole matter is closed. The meals will remain as they are, and no action will be taken in regard to the suggested menu.

A fellow shouldn't try to predict the future. It's all one can do nowadays to keep up with the present.

Baptist Church

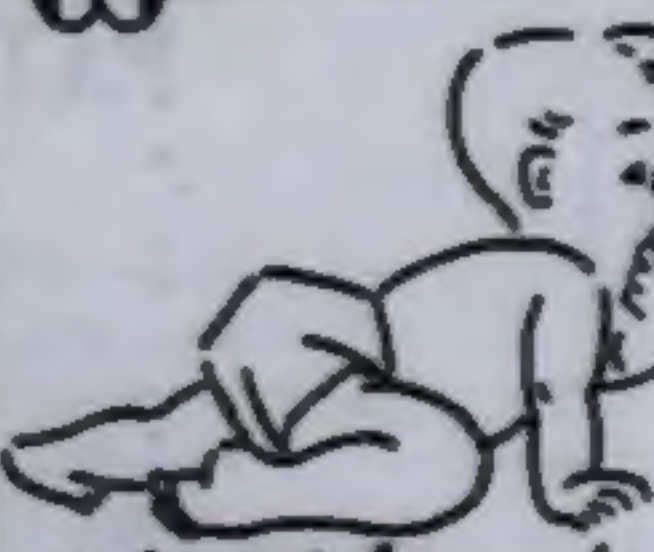

EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES

Commenting on the Easter Services in the Baptist Church, Mr. McLean, the minister, made the following statements: "While I am not in favor of special occasions and church services at the expense of the regular attendance at church I do feel that at Easter every one who has any connection with the church should attend the services of that branch of the church which is his choice. By so doing he will be making some acknowledgment of his gratitude to God for the many blessings that he, and the rest of the world have received as a result of the Resurrection and its effects on the world."

He further stated that he felt that the most acceptable and impressive way to celebrate this, the greatest festival of the Christian Church, is through the medium of good sacred music, instrumental and vocal alike. Because of this the services in his church on Sunday will be largely choral with very little in the way of preaching.

The choir under the capable leadership of Mrs. F. Simpson as director and Miss G. Ormiston, organist, have been practicing faithfully for a long time for these Easter services and will render effective, impressive and helpful assistance in our Easter worship. This together with the singing by all of many of the well loved Easter hymns will, we expect, provide an Easter long to be remembered with appreciation by the congregations that will gather on that day."

GRIMSBY RED CROSS
CAMPAIGN OVER THE TOP

The ready response of this Community to the appeal for funds in the recent Red Cross drive has been excellent. For the most part the work of the canvassers was made easy by the whole-hearted support of the public. Contributions, large and small were given cheerfully and the visitor was made to feel she had conferred a favor by calling for a donation.

The proceeds of the campaign, with some few dollars still to come in, is over $3500. This total received a shot in the arm which put it well over the top by a contribution of $650 from the wartime fund of the White Elephant store.

The Committee desires to publicly thank these women for reserving this sum of money for the Red Cross drive. Your Committee also wishes to express its appreciation for the fine co-operation and effort of the Canvassers and to congratulate Grimsby and the District upon its generous response to the appeal of the organization whose work of mercy never ends.

Signed by the Committee,
Mrs. T. L. Dymond,
Mrs. C. E. Dunham,
Mrs. C. D. Millyard,
Mrs. L. J. Pettit.

LITTLE WHEELER IN BIG BUSINESS—Two deals of interest to sports followers were closed up this week. LITTLE WHEELER disposed of THE BOWLAWAY to LIONEL LYMBURNER and in turn purchased the billiard parlor of the late FRANK HITCHMAN. Before opening the billiard room for business he will completely renovate the room and also the tables. It is just four years ago in January that THE BOWLAWAY was opened to the public and during that time has enjoyed an excellent business. It has been one of the finest conducted bowling alleys in the province and at no time did either bowlers or the general public have the slightest kick coming about its operation. We are glad LITTLE WHEELER is going to continue in business on Main Street and we welcome MR. LYMBURNER to the ranks of the businessmen of the town.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT SHELL ON EARTH IS?—Well, I do. OLD POP McVICAR does. Did you ever stand on the cold hard sidewalk and see a Canada Coach Lines Highway Pullman hit the open road with the greatest hockey team in Ontario aboard and you couldn't be there. I did imagine OLD POP McVICAR then, stretched on his back in a sick bed. What must have gone through that man's brain between 12.30 Friday noon and when I gave him the last telephone message at 11 o'clock at night, must have been just . . . I had one consolation, I had heard that rubber tired Pullman the two best hockey reporters in Canada, LITTLE DYKE LAWSON and JACKIE McKEE. I'll tell you folks it is tough when you have a great team and the Law of Nature says that you cannot follow them. There are two smart, young newspapermen coming up in this town, I hope they never, from a sports standpoint, have to forgo what I have had to forgo this winter.

POOR OLD UNCLE BILL HEWITT—Who wants the job of Secretary of the O.H.A.? I don't. What William A. Hewitt, UNCLE BILL to me, has gone through this winter would try the nerves and the heart of a Saint, and despite the fact that the gentleman is an old man, I do not believe that there is another man in Ontario that is capable of stepping into his shoes, not even our own DENTY MOORE of Port Colborne, Past President of the O.H.A. and a very logical choice. If and when UNCLE BILL decides, himself, that it is time to step out, I worked for BILL HEWITT and the late LOU MARSH more years ago than I want to tell right here, because there is a woman on my tail. BILL HEWITT was Sports Editor of the Toronto Star for a whole flock of years, despite the fact that the owner of the rival paper, JOHN ROSS ROBERTSON, the founder of the O.H.A. picked him as a young man to be secretary of the O.H.A. He has held that job for 40 and a lot of years and always gave 100 percent satisfaction. I would not have taken his unremunerative job 30 years ago and I certainly would not take it now at any price. And at no time has BILL HEWITT ever had enough out of it to pay him for one-half the time that he has been compelled to put in at it. My chaps in the office to UNCLE BILL for the great job that he has done this winter, with snow and ice bound roads and 60,000 other agitations. Remember he is not 40 years old, supposed to be, hockey brain in Canada. No matter what happens to the PEACH KINGS, that is up to them. The fact remains that UNCLE BILL HEWITT is doing a mighty swell job.

LET THE BALLOON GO UP—Reports from Thorold are to the effect that it will take $10,000 to repair the damage done to the Thorold Arena by fire three weeks ago. LITTLE WHEELER is mad. MEN'S league players are so sleepy that they either turn up for games in the playdowns like drowsy, or else do not turn up at all. Don't blame the Whiffle. If I were he I would use a club. The same half pint, while it effect his business, is one of the strongest supporters that the PEACH KINGS have. In fact he closes the joint up when the KINGS are playing at home. . . . Here is news for you grub hounds. You may not be so fast on the alleys but when PEGGY O'NEIL puts a knife and fork in your hand and you start to consume some of MacMillan's chicken a la Maryland, then you are the champions of champs. MEN'S league gorge their stomachs with Village Inn food on April 30th. PEACH QUEEN'S will daintily take their food on May 7th. Those will be two big nights. I understand that GAB RAHN has promised to do a LANNY ROSS imitation in song. That is just what it will be, an imitation. He better bring FRODO MINDO along with his tin whistle to accompany him. . . . Last week I suggested to THROCKMORTON ATTERCLIFFE JARVIS, the effervescent manager of the PEACH KINGS that he stage the final game of the Intermediate series on BLOSSOM SUNDAY. Now I have a new idea for him. THROCKY, Old Bean, why not make arrangements with OLD TOM WARNER to invite the country side to come into the ARENA at some date in the middle of September and see the NIAGARA PACKERS boys packing peaches in the daytime and then at night see the PEACH KINGS take on a mediocre team such as the MAPLE LEAFS or the CANADIENS. It would be a great double attraction. In fact I think that PEGGY O'NEIL could make arrangements to wind up the days entertainment by having GYPSY ROSE LEE appear at The Village Inn. Think it over, THROCKY. . . . I have already lost seven dollars this winter betting with MIKE SWEET, one of the two crack trainers that look after all the wants of the KINGS. Every game that I have bet MIKE that he would get licked, I have lost. I have no regrets, because if there ever was a boy whose heart and soul was in his work, it is MIKE SWEET and he knows his work. OLD POP, the FUDGENHEAD, the FATHER and all the rest of the executive as well as the players will agree to that, so will DR. A. F. MCINTYRE, the club physician. Don't forget that LITTLE SOREPHUS HANDS is here, too. I'll tell you a story about him later in the season, the way it is going now it will be about the middle of June. . . . BIG RUSHTON was in town for the BARNIA-KINGS game on Monday night. Hockey is in his blood and he just cannot stay away. . . . Those hockey fans that made the long trek to Petrolia were just 21 hours on the road from the time they left the FRUIT BELT until they arrived back in civilization. They had plenty of grief of several different kinds. . . . I am writing this screed on Wednesday afternoon. What will happen to the KINGS tonight when the boys from Walkerton invade the local ice house I am not prepared to prophesy, at the same time I have all kinds of faith in the Red and White clad lads. If Walkerton can take them on the round or even for one game then they can consider themselves a mighty smart bunch of hockey players. . . . Did you know that Little Wheeler carries his own private grandstand to the hockey matches. Sure, a soap box to stand on so that he can see.

THANK YOU

AFTER FOUR PLEASANT YEARS OF OPERATION OF THE GRIMSBY BOWLAWAY I HAVE DISPOSED OF THE BUSINESS TO LIONEL LYMBURNER, A HOME TOWN BOY AND A VETERAN OF THE LAST WAR. I WISH TO TAKE THIS MEANS OF EXTENDING MY MOST SINCERE THANKS FOR FINE PATRONAGE EXTENDED TO ME.

HAVING PURCHASED THE GRIMSBY BOWLAWAY FROM GEORGE KANMACHER I ASK FOR A CONTINUATION OF THE EXCELLENT PATRONAGE THAT THE BOWLING PUBLIC EXTENDED TO HIM. I ASSURE YOU THAT FINE ALLEYS AND SERVICE GIVEN YOU IN THE PAST WILL BE CONTINUED.

plainly visible expression was the effect of "well, that's it, and let's make the best of a lousy situation."

Dressed, the teams took the ice on schedule, and thus began one of the most hopeless contests of hockey we ever care to witness. For the first period while the ice was in the process of being churned into a dirty grey mass of sodden slush, the Kings attempted and succeeded in scoring two goals to the Sailors' one. We would not go so far as to say that the Kings could pass the rubber around in their usual manner, but they did show right then and there, that they were superior, and the two goals verify that statement.

It was Johnny Hale who took a pass from Fran Craig and backhanded the disc past the Sarnia goalie, near the half way mark (no time clock) and put the Kings into a temporary lead. About two minutes later, the Kings with one man back let a three man rush from the Sailors culminate in a goal scored by Bud Dodds, centreman for the Sarnia outfit. Before the period ended, Ronnie Kemp took Barry Blanchard's pass from the side of the Sarnia net. Standing about twelve feet out, Kemp's screened shot found its mark, and the Kings went into the second period leading by one goal. Hutchison and Kirkland were given two minutes penalties for highsticking in the opener. The Kings dominated the play in this period.

The golf season got underway in the middle frame, which was about fifty-fifty. Wankie Mattison was jugged for hooking, but the Kings actually outplayed the Sailors while Mattison was off.

"Let them do the work," was the gist of Coach Pud Reid's instructions, and this the Kings followed to a "T". It was a lucky golf shot from Haddon's stick that tied the score near the end of the period. Len Rutter drew an assist. During the later stages of the period, the Kings had their old difficulty of clearing the puck from their zone, and this eventually gave Sarnia that tying goal, as the pressure increased a trifle, with Sarnia holding the edge as the period closed.

I think the Kings realized as they took the ice for the third and final period, that going out of here with a tie, or even a goal or two down would not be too much of an obstacle on the return game. The final twenty minutes was rather pitiful. Sarnia opened up, realizing I think, that they would need quite a lead to take this team in Grimsby. Some very nice three iron shots, plus the odd nice approach shot with an eight iron, finally paid off for the Sailors. Again it was Dodds who scored the tie breaking goal, Kirkland again getting the assist. The goal was scored with only two minutes left to play. It was very disappointing for the Kings.

Mattison for boarding, Butler for roughing, and Hale for boarding were the three penalties handed out in the final period. None of them effected the scoring.

Len Allan, defenseman for the Sailors was forced from the game with a leg injury. Latest report from the Sarnia manager was that "it was serious". Alf MacMillan was perhaps the star for the Kings in the final period, stopping quite a number of tricky shots. The inadequate lighting, plus the rough and "next to water" state of the ice made for difficult goaltending. They were a very tired bunch of players who left the ice at the final whistle. But they were not unduly disappointed. The fans who made the trip from this district were perhaps the most disappointed.

It was Dodds who culminated a brilliant rush with a rebound shot, and beat MacMillan for the first Sarnia tally. Three minutes later, Haddon brought the round up to a six to five affair, when the Kings defense looked bad in clearing, and MacMillan was afforded little or no protection. It was a pretty poor period of hockey, and left the fans somewhat bewildered by the effort the Kings put up, after a brilliant first period.

Things really had to be bad before the Kings finally woke up to the fact that Sarnia were far from being a defeated team. At one minute and six seconds of the third period, Kirkland took Dodds pass on a lovely passing play and the round was all tied up at six goals apiece.

The chips were down, and it remained for the better team to go on and win. It has been said by some of the experts about town, that the Kings play their best when the going gets a bit rugged.

Perhaps it was a break when Dodds received a hooking penalty at the 4:20 mark. Perhaps the Kings were lucky to get that all important goal to break the stalemate, but at any rate it was dependable Frances Craig who slapped a backhand shot past the Sarnia netminder, as the Kings were milling all round the enemy stronghold, as they played a man short. Hale got credit for an assist on this million dollar goal.

From that time on, the period was a replica of the first period, as the Kings skated the two Sarnia lines into the ice. At 8:40 Mush Miller stumbled, sprayed, leaped and forced his way up the right boards from his own zone, finally arrived behind the net, passed the puck out to Blanchard who was right on the doorstep, and Barry made no mistake, as he rapped the rubber into the twine.

Hutchison was given the gate for highsticking, this was offset seconds later, as Dodds received a tripping penalty, and talked himself into a ten minute misconduct, which finished him for the night. Playing five a side, the Kings rapped in another goal, as Pud Reid chalked his first counter in a long time. Zuke set the play up, giving Reid the pass right in front of the net, and Pud binged for the seventh Grimsby tally.

Zuke and Kirkland got the gate at the thirteen minute mark. I think this made Zuke a bit peeved, for it was his first penalty of the entire season. At any rate it was Zuke who scored the final Grimsby tally at the sixteen minute mark. The goal was unique in this way. Zuke passed to Hill in front of the net, Hill was too well covered to shoot, and Zuke skated over from the boards, stood right in front of Rutter, and placed the rubber in the top right corner.

That was it, as Grimsby won eight to three on the game, and the round ten goals to six. It's three down and two to go for the Champions.

Grimsby—Goal: MacMillan; Defense: Reid, Miller, Warner; Centre: Zuke, Craig, Kemp; Wings: Hill, Mattison, Hutchison, Hale, Tallman, Blanchard.

Sarnia—Goal: Rutter; Defense: Allan, L. Rutter, Davey, Janon; Centre: Dodds, Butler; Wings: Kirkland, Haddon, Needham, Kinkie.

P.S.: Davey's brief appearance, courtesy of C.C.M. skates, which can stand anything. He's a great plunger in football, and no kiddin'.

HEALTH OUTDOORS

Those who complain that the climate of Canada is not conducive to a fit standard of health, find little support among health experts at Ottawa. Officials in the Department of National Health and Welfare, pointing to Canada's well-known hardihood of human material, declare that such weather as the Dominion offers is excellent for development of a sturdy, disease-resisting stock.

While wind, rain, sun or snow may be hard on such lifeless objects as structures of brick and stone, they are essential to life. As an example, the experts point to growing things which, when robbed of a fair share of the out-of-doors, become stunted pale and anaemic. Likewise, human beings who spend their time indoors, are afraid to venture into the elements and who coddle themselves, are becoming ill-fitted to withstand the buffeting winds of fate, mental as well as physical, as they are to stand up to the blustering day.

Officials in the National Physical Fitness division of the Department acclaim the open air as the natural habitat of living things — humans included. They recommend, of course, all proper precautions in inclement weather, including proper clothing and avoidance of strain.

PROPER POSTURE

Posture is important in relation to health. So, say doctors at Ottawa, "consider your backbone." The Department of National Health and Welfare has this word of advice to health-seekers — "Don't slump in your chair as though it was a bed. Straighten up, whenever you find yourself becoming stooped or slouchy. If your spine is straight, your internal organs have a better chance to work in uncramped quarters."

SPORTOLOGY

FOLLOWING THE PEACH KINGS IS A LONG, HARD, ROUGH TRAIL

(By GORDON MCGREGOR)

So you're on the bus bound for Petrolia. It was fitting that the only two guys present to bid adieu to the Peach Kings were two of the most rabid fans in the town of Grimsby. Bones (noodling a shave) Livingston and Tom (sweater boy) Warner.

Our passenger list includes players of the 1947 edition of the Peach Kings: Earl Marsh and George Marr of the Niagara Packers; Coach Fred Reid, trainers Mike (I cover Main St.) Sweet, Joe Hand, Pop Shepherd, President of the team: Herb Jarvis, team manager: George Behtuk, a character who never misses a game, trims Lawton, of the Independent and yours truly.

We had decided to get around to getting some pre-game dope from the players on this long trip. Such questions, as how do you feel about meeting a team that you know nothing about? How will you plan your play, etc. etc.

Trying to get these answers was tough. For instance, we would ask the question, and what do we get for an answer—a royal flush. Or was it all blue. Before we had reached Brantford, I had given up this question stuff, and joined the merry throng. Got bumped twice, holding three jacks. The bus bumped right back (lousy road) the tickets fell to the floor. Warner lost a dime on the floor, and in intensive search was started. Nervous, before a play-off game with a team that had won all but one game in their group and play-offs and two rounds of the semi-finals? Not these guys. Everything was copasetic.

London: Gassed up. Ate dinner at what Jarvis called the best restaurant in that great city. The chicken must have come from Malaya, by slow freight. A couple games of smooker, a shot shine, a few pictures taken, and its on to Petrolia.

The roads got increasingly worse, aftermath of the big blow they had up there last week. We're still ahead of schedule. I'm still up five. Warner is still looking for his dime. Johnny Hale is sleeping. George Zuke is dreaming of onion sandwiches. Still no sign of nerves. No sign of Warner's dime. Fred Reid, Junior, keeps our driver Bill Wilson tied up in conversation. The big eight hundred rolls merrily on. The lights of Petrolia finally come into view.

The streets of the town are puddle filled and slushy, and the players mutter something about the ice being soft. At last, a little concern about the game.

The risk. Our first impression was that it must be a converted livery stable. It's narrow, short, illuminated by fifteen one hundred watt bulbs. Spectators are all packed in on one side. The ice—well, it was definitely snug.

The teams drew. We find a telephone in a neighboring home. Grimsby must be kept posted, and the ice was pretty busy. The teams take the ice. The three officials blow their whistles, and this contest finally gets underway. Behtuk stands on the ice behind the net. George is a goal judge. Viva la Behtuk.

First period, we lead two goals to one. We dash out to make a call to Grimsby. Meet Bill Hand, just arrived on the passenger bus. Liked. These customers are seething. Bus broke down, late getting here. No place to watch the game. AND A BUCK TO WATCH THE DARN THING AT THAT.

Second period. Game is all tied up. Another call. More protests from the bus passengers. The ice is a shambles.

Third period. We lost the game. The players dress quickly. They do not appear very downhearted. Guess they figure that this team will be a cluck on Grimsby ice. We depart from Petrolia. The passengers stick around. The bus has had it.

Out of town a few miles, we are stopped while the police clear away an accident. It's a local car involved, and pretty badly damaged. The big cop wants the bus to take the passengers back to Grimsby. We are filled, but we take them.

London. The bus needs some petrol. Gets none. The passengers need some nourishment. They get it. More chicken. A little better, must have come by fast freight.

Meet a bus going up to Petrolia to rescue the marooned Grimsby fans. Down to three bucks now. Warner found his dime. Hank Hill is playing square dimes on his harmonica. The executive is spending a quite night at the rear of the coach. Some players are trying to sleep. Others are sleeping very easily. Zuke is sleeping on his shoulder. Type. He found those onion sandwiches all right. We roll on and on. Gradually the noise subsides. A few do-bards just barely keep their heads from nodding. Soon all is quiet. It's five o'clock.

Brantford, and as you peer sleepily out of the coach window, you see the first traces of dawn. You suddenly feel utterly fatigued. Before we reach the outskirts of Hamilton, dawn has broken.

In Hamilton we get a Globe and find that we lost a hockey game, IN THE ONTARIO RURAL HOCKEY ASSOCIATION. This is too much. One report says that the ice was a bit heavy. Oh, brother.

We finally roll down familiar No. 4, and the conversation hinges about how long you are going to sleep. Some players had to go to work without any sleep. That is really tough going.

We reach Grimsby, as the cool grey dawn has finally beat the murky night to the punch. We stumble out of the coach. Legs cramped. Eyes heavy as stone lids. The game seems a million miles away. It's seven o'clock.

HANG-OVERS

"You don't have to be a toper to have a hang-over." This is the finding of the Department of National Health and Welfare, where doctors point out that a morning-after-the-night before feeling can arise from many things other than overindulgence in liquor. It can result from indigestion in eating, smoking, play and even from failure to get enough relaxation. "You can't meddle with nature's laws and have continuous good health" the department reminds Canadians. "When a passing whim amails you, ask yourself, 'Will it upset my system?'"

You can tell the successful business man. He is the one who doesn't have to borrow money with which to pay his taxes.

THIRD WORLD WAR

himself to be in a position to risk another world war the speaker was hopeful that the United Nations would have gained enough strength and prestige that no country would dare to embark on any such campaign.

The needs of Russia are mainly two, said Professor VanDeusen, security and year-round access to warm water ports. The first of these she has attempted to secure by annexing or dominating those countries most closely connected with her geographically. The second might very easily bring her into conflict with other powers whose spheres of influence would be invaded by any Russian expansionist policy.

A third world war must be considered a distinct possibility, said the speaker, if the world degenerates into two blocs—an eastern and a western bloc, with each striving for the advantage at the expense of the other. He was hopeful, however, that if war could be avoided for five or six years the United Nations could in that time build itself up into such an organization that no single nation could challenge its authority.

The speaker was introduced by Lion Erwin Phelps and thanked, on behalf of the members, by Lion Chetwynd.

Following the address, Lion President Aubrey Crich opened a short question period, during which the speaker replied to a number of queries put to him by his audience.

Lion Secretary, Vernon Tuck informed the members of the Spring Some meeting to be held at the Fleet Aircraft Cafeteria in Fort Erie on April 17th.

Lion F. V. Smith announced that at the next meeting on Tuesday, April 15th, the finals in the Lions Oratorical Competition will take place, with entrants from the Grimsby, Smithville and Beamsville High Schools.

Lion Harold Brownlee presented to the club a reading desk, made by himself, for the use of the and Towne Manufacturing Co. in St. Catharines. As International Representative of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America I know you are fully aware of the conciliation services available in this Province and which must be used and which was set up solely for and in the interest of the workers of this Province. A conciliation officer should first be requested from this Department and if he fails to bring the parties in disagreement together then application must be made to the Ontario Labour Relations Board for a conciliation board. If this board also fails and the time set for a cooling-off period after conciliation board's report has been received then the workers have the legal right to strike. I cannot condemn too strongly your action in taking a strike vote without in the slightest degree using the machinery set up to eliminate the necessity of strike and I demand that you withhold strike action until these services which are impartial shall have had an opportunity to settle the dispute.

As a result of that telegram, I was able to bring these parties together. Meetings have been arranged and negotiations have been carried on in my office. I will not go into the question of the agreement, that is, it included many things requested by the union, such as increases in wages, open and closed shops and many other things. Many of those things separating the two parties had been definitely narrowed down, almost to a point where we felt we had an agreement practically ready to be consummated. Before the negotiations started, I insisted that the threat of strike be eliminated, that we could not possibly carry on negotiations with the threat of a strike hanging over our heads. We received from the union officials a definite understanding that there would be no strike during negotiations because the policy of my Department is simply that we will not intervene if strike threats or a strike is called during our negotiations. I had this group in the office this morning, and in spite of the fact a strike was called, and I say most emphatically, the only reason that I agreed to meet the parties was that I did not want to penalize a lot of people in this industry and the company because of this breach of faith on the part of the union.

I bring this to the attention of you, Mr. Speaker, because there is such an actual demonstration of bad faith in these dealings on the part of the union. I know the union claims the strike is spontaneous, we could not stop it, but after negotiations for some three years now with union organizations and companies, I know strikes are not spontaneous. They are organized, and I know this was not spontaneous. I know there was a meeting called at the last minute last night and this strike was organized. I am particularly concerned about it, Mr. Speaker, because if the strike had not been organized, they simply could not have had banners and circulars and arm bands and literature all prepared this morning when they went on strike. I am also concerned about the fact of what is claimed to be, by the union, a spontaneous strike called last night at 8:00 o'clock. This morning there were a number of outstanding labour leaders, from other parts of the Province, with well known ideals with which we disagree in this country, already on the premises or on the picket lines, assisting in the continuance of the strike. It is quite obvious that this was not a spontaneous strike, and there was definite bad faith on the part of the union. We hear so much of bad leadership and the infiltration into labour organizations of leaders with ideals that are contrary to our way of thinking, but I am confident in my own mind it is now quite widespread. I would also like to point out that I have met and dealt with practically all of the labour leaders in the Province and I have found, and I can say this without fear of contradiction, many of them to be fine, conscientious men endeavouring to do a good job on the part of the workers of this Province and it is for that reason I think an infiltration of that type of leadership can only lead to the destruction, certainly of public opinion, which will be detrimental, definitely detrimental to organized labour, and if carried on to any extent, will set organized labour back many years. May I suggest, Mr. Speaker, I thought this was of sufficient importance that this House should know and that the labour people in this Province should know, with actions of this kind following this type of leadership, that there is utter futility in it, and following blindly without giving the matter proper consideration before talking on a subject of this kind. It only brings suffering, not only to themselves and their
